VIDEO GAME DESCRIPTION

Baja Bill is one hungry dude. He's part of an exploration team that has discovered the ruins of an ancient jungle civilization. Tired and hungry from a day of hacking through the jungle, Baja Bill climbs into his sleeping bag near the giant stone steps that lead up to the main temple in the ruins. In his dreams the temple turns into a bonanza of Taco Bell® food delights. He races from room to room through the temple, gobbling up as much food as he can. Tacos! Nachos! Gorditas! Mexican Pizza and Chalupas! But there's a catch. Hiding in the nooks and crannies of the temple are poisonous jungle cobras. Just when you least expect it, they jump out and take a bite! Cover them with Hot Sauce and they're goners. But if you don't move quickly, they'll give you a nasty bite. Get bitten enough times and you'll wake from your dream before you reach... the Grande Meal™!

The Grande Meal™ - Hot and delicious. It sits there on the top level of the temple ruins...waiting...for you. Will you get there before you wake up from your dream??? Play Tasty Temple Challenge and find out!
